

THE SECOND WEEK AND POSITIVELY THE LAST OF D. CRAWFORD & CO.'S GREAT STOCK-TAKING SALE BEGINS IN THE MORNING DON'T MISS IT! PRICES LOWER THAN EVER! Goods Must Be Sold! 'Tis Easier to Count the Money Than Measure or Count the Goods. Therefore the Goods Must Go. Read the Prices. Examine the Goods. This is the Only Store in the City in a Position to Stand a Loss. And Don't You Forget It!! MADE INTO THE BARGAINS!

vice in the West. The man, who not proof against a gripe, which him Christmas day, and culminated in pneumonia.

Fred Hall, the brother of Miss Pauline Hall, and a member of "The Brigands" company at the Casino, died this morning at his home, 260 West Forty-fifth street, from pneumonia, resulting from an attack of the influenza.

Miss Lillian Russell and Miss Fanny Rice have also succumbed to the prevailing malady and have given up their work for the present, their places at the Casino being filled by their understudies. In fact, the theatrical profession is all broken up by La Grippe, and every day new victims are reported.

It was the Russian influenza which brought on the fatal illness of Gustave Mortimer, the manager for Marie Wainright, the actress, who died yesterday at his home in New Dorp, Staten Island, and which has retired Louis Messen and Miss Eugenie from the Madison Square Theater Co. Every manager is trembling for his stars for there is no telling who will be the next to go under.

At the Custom-house the epidemic is getting in its fine work with unusual effectiveness.
Assistant Collector McClelland is laid up at his home at Dobbs' Ferry, and his doctor says he won't be able to come out for a week.

Survivor George W. Lyon and his Special Deputy, Samuel D. Blatchford are still victims, and an army of clerks and messengers are off duty on sick leave.

Mayor Grant misses the services of his able secretary, Thomas O. F. Crain, and City Auditor, W. J. Lyon, and W. J. Dugan, of the Corporation Counsel Office are all victims in misery.

La Grippe has also fastened its upon Deputy United States Marshal, S. C.
W. Holmes, one of the most Federal officers in the town.

Hail is still confined to his room, in gray friends say that the danger is where at 500.
he is mending.

In the police department

Silk
Is "cheap as cotton" at stock-taking figure, and the items given are only a few hints of what is in stock, waiting the wise woman who buys at "down" prices and shows her purchases to the foolish woman who waits until they are "up."

and $3.75.

Cloaks
Are still on the down-grade as to reductions. Crawford's is a great establishment, but never did pretend to have a "corner" on weather forecasts; if it had—well, there would be fewer Cloaks in stock, and, confidentially, of course, there would be more of a price on each one. As it is, a lot of Wraps can't be carried over to next year, so down go the prices, like that "chestnut" of a McGinty, "to the bottom of the say."

MYSTERIOUS DISAPPEARANCE.

Dr. Evans at the Lindell Hotel.

An Interview With Some of the Great Healer's Patients.

Hearing many reports of this famous physician, a reporter was despatched to ascertain the facts, which he found to be as follows: The first person visited was Mr. Wm. Lindsay, who resides at 3131 Brandeburg place, who stated that three years ago he was afflicted with sciatic rheumatism in his right limb, and from there the pain gradually extended across his hips, up his spine, and into his arms and shoulders. In the course of time he noticed that a numbness and weakness commenced to affect every part of his body. This weakness, or paralysis, gradually increased until, when he applied to Dr. Evans, at the Lindell Hotel, some four weeks ago, he was in such a paralyzed and helpless condition that he could not go up or down stairs without assistance. He stated to the reporter that Dr. Evans had given him seven magnetic treatments, and that he was now a well man; that all the pains had left him. His paralysis had mysteriously disappeared, and he was now strong and well. Mr. Lindsay stated that he wanted the world to know of the great cure Dr. Evans had effected in his case, and that he would be pleased to have any one call at his residence as above and learn the particulars of his case. Mr. W. D. Warrick, whose place of business is at 703 Kwing avenue, was next interviewed, and said that for fifteen years he had been a constant sufferer from rheumatism and neuritis, much of the time being unable to attend to his business, until Dr. Evans gave him a few magnetic treatments. He said he was now a well and hearty man. Many others testified in like manner. On account of his rapidly increasing business, Dr. Evans has found it necessary to call to his assistance the eminent Physician, Surgeon and Magnetist, Dr. F. B. Smith of New York City, who will be associated with him in the future. Drs. Evans and Smith will commence a course of free Lectures and Public Healing of the sick in Pope's Theater on Monday morning, January 6, 1890, from 10 to 11 o'clock each morning. They cordially invite all lovers of science and of the afflicted to attend and witness their wonderful cures and hear their lectures each morning, which are pronounced to be not only interesting, but highly instructive to all. During this course of lectures Magnetism and other kindred occult sciences will be fully discussed and their application in the cure of the sick demonstrated by treating and curing all manner of diseases in the presence of the audience. The doctors especially invite the medical profession to attend. They can also be consulted at their parlors (6 and 7) at the Lindell Hotel, just at the head of the stairs of the ladies' entrance. Consultation free. Admission and treatment at Pope's Theater also free. First of the course Monday, January 6, from 10 to 11 a. m.; daily.

THE DAY IS SET.

Monday Will End the Agony of the Candidates for the St. Louis Postmastership.

Schurte's Bad Break Thoroughly Repaired by the Efforts of Col. Kerens.

The belief general among Missourians is that the St. Louis Postmaster General, Mr. Schurte, has been thoroughly repaired by the efforts of Col. Kerens. The belief is based upon the fact that the St. Louis Postmaster General, Mr. Schurte, has been thoroughly repaired by the efforts of Col. Kerens.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 4.—From present indications another week promises to bring with it a number of federal appointments which will be made in the usual season of the year. During the holiday season the Post-Office Department in particular has been busily engaged scheduling the names of those whose names are to be placed on the list of candidates for the St. Louis Postmastership.

Among the Missouri offices that will be done in this matter cannot be definitely stated, but to-night it is the general belief that the agony will not be further prolonged. Maj. Chas. Pearce, who has been here for fifteen years past when approached on the subject indicated that it was not an agreeable one for him to talk on. He has an idea that the Missouri office will play a part in the final adjustment of things, though he did not doubt but what the President was inclined to take matters in his own hands and dispose of the case, which had become very aggravated.

The Major stated that he would refrain from going near the executive office of the Postmaster General, Mr. Schurte, until this afternoon. The Colonel was accompanied by Matt G. Reynolds, who came here on other business. He had quite an extended interview at the Post-Office Department, and went away with a disposition to be somewhat skeptical about the situation of the St. Louis contest than the officials. To an intimate acquaintance he expressed it as his opinion that the postmaster would be settled on Monday by the nomination of Col. Schurte. Such is the opinion everywhere to-night, and the lead which it has been given will decide any enthusiasm when the end comes. The charges which were threatened at one time during this eventful canvass, and which for a time threatened Col. Schurte, it is intimated, have been cleared away and satisfactorily explained.

The interests of Mr. Filley have not been entirely overlooked during the day. In addition to the friends he is said to have at court Col. James Beach of the Republican State Committee has been prominent in inquiring into the effects of the recent bushels of letters and telegrams sent in the Chairman's behalf. But in doing this he is said to have met with much encouragement as he did during his first visit here in behalf of himself for Surveyor of the Port at St. Joseph.

The inquisitive have wondered what interest Hon. Matt Reynolds had in to-day's proceedings, coming with Col. Kerens, as he did, and keeping him company while he met with Mr. Reynolds said he would not have the office of a not an applicant. The explanation of Mr. Reynolds' trip is that he has legal business pertaining to the Cherokee Commission works, which he desires settled.

Aspirants for Missouri Postmasterships. By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 4.—Among the recommendations which the Post-Office Department has prepared for the President are those of Postmasters at Fulton, Macon, Savannah, Louisiana and Hannibal, Mo.

At Macon, Miss. Glaze will be given charge of the Post-Office. The one which has been named upon him is said to be met with an opponent, Judge Hess of Macon has recommended to his credit at headquarters. Mr. Glaze and his opponent are said to have failed of their own weight.

At Hannibal a good man will have to go. Col. Nichols, who was appointed by President Cleveland, has made an acceptable Postmaster to general of the Republicans and most of the Democrats. But he made a mistake in placing his nephew in the office under an attorney to divide the salary of the position. An inspector reported against Col. Nichols' retention and a Mr. Lamson will succeed him.

Such is the situation given your correspondent. Maj. Brock, it is understood, was not agreeable to this change, but met with an opponent, Judge Hess of Macon has recommended to his credit at headquarters. Mr. Glaze and his opponent are said to have failed of their own weight.

DISASTROUS FLOODS.

COMMUNICATION BY RAIL SHUT OFF IN VARIOUS LOCALITIES.

Rivers Overflow Their Banks and Submerge Hundreds of Acres of Land—Heavy Losses to Farmers Residing on the Lowlands—Snow in the Sierra Nevada Mountains—The Worst Yet to Come.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 4.—This is the fourth day of the flood and but slight improvement. There has been no mail received here from St. Louis since Wednesday evening, and only one train has arrived from the south. The Cairo branch is under water and communication shut off.

Three trains are bulletined from the North and expected every hour that have been laid off at points between here and St. Louis for three days. The Black and St. Francis Rivers are out of their banks and the whole country submerged. It is impossible to even estimate the damage. Several hundred passengers are stranded here. Train No. 1, on the Iron Mountain, that left St. Louis this morning, has just arrived and reports a steady rain and a volley through the door, wounding him, and then beat and generally maltreated his wife and child.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 4.—The recent heavy rains have caused the Mow River and Silver Creek to overflow, and the entire bottom of both these streams are now under water. The Louisville and Nashville Railroad raised their track two or three years ago, three feet in the Silver Creek bottom, but the road is now being raised again, and the water is still rising. The loss to farmers in the Silver Creek bottom, with his property, is estimated at $25,000. The loss to farmers in the Silver Creek bottom, with his property, is estimated at $25,000.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 4.—The fall of snow in the Sierra Nevada Mountains along the line of the Central Pacific Railroad, according to reports received here, is unprecedented. There is sixteen feet on the level at Summit and twelve feet at Elmer's Gap. The road has been kept comparatively clear by the use of the immense rotary plows of the company. The heavy snow has caused the road to be closed for several days. The loss to the company is estimated at $25,000.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 4.—The springlike weather of Christmas has been succeeded by warm, gloomy, rainy weather that is likely to be very expensive to farmers, fruit-growers and railroads. The Missouri River has been badly damaged. Several narrow escapes from wreck on this account are reported. The Missouri River has been badly damaged. Several narrow escapes from wreck on this account are reported.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 4.—The Farmers' Alliance of Livingston County convened in secret session at the City Hall here to-day. The order was reported in a flourishing condition, as the farmers in this county are actually in the summer months put an appearance. Mr. Cannon, the chairman of the Appropriation Committee, has been prominent in inquiring into the effects of the recent bushels of letters and telegrams sent in the Chairman's behalf.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 4.—The chair which has for nearly four years been sacred to the use of Mr. J. F. Fennell, chief clerk of the State Department, and formerly Chief of Affairs at Vienna, will in future be decorated by the presence of a deity. A new chair has been ordered by the department previous to the incoming of President Cleveland.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 4.—The information is not properly official, but those who ought to know all about the matter have been quoted in one or two of to-day's papers as saying that the change from Walker Bluff to the new location is going to take place. "If the Secretary," said, referring to his father, "has come to any conclusion in the matter he has not yet made them public." Mr. Lee is now indisposed and has not been in his office to-day. The probability is that he is in the city, and that a thirty-day leave that on February 1, Mr. Brown will come in.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 4.—The United States steamship Dispatch left the Washington Navy Yard this morning with a number of delegates to the International Convention of the Life Saving Service. They are the guests of Mr. Kimball, General Superintendent of the Life Saving Service.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 4.—A fishing boat containing three Greek fishermen, George Mitchell, his owner and Antonio Nicholas, capsized last night near Point Bonita Light-house, while returning from a cruise and all but Nicholas drowned.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 4.—A boiler explosion at Samuel Gurney's mills at Peck's Ferry, occurred this evening. The boiler burst and killed and four other men wounded.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 4.—James Bacon, a brakeman on the Wilmington & Northern, was crushed between two cars and fatally injured.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 4.—The dwelling of Lafayette Rebhun at Union, this county, was burned to the ground yesterday afternoon at 8 o'clock. The fire originated from a spark from the chimney. Nearly all the furniture was saved. There was no insurance.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 4.—George H. Jacks was an industrious and efficient officer and the recognized Pooh-Bah of Muskegon. During his service as Deputy United States Marshal a number of thefts, daring and startling, were committed in and about Muskegon, and Jacks, who also figured as a private detective, undertook to trace the criminals. This has been going on for two years. The police finally grew suspicious and while he was away one day they

Rivers Overflow Their Banks and Submerge Hundreds of Acres of Land—Heavy Losses to Farmers Residing on the Lowlands—Snow in the Sierra Nevada Mountains—The Worst Yet to Come.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 4.—This is the fourth day of the flood and but slight improvement. There has been no mail received here from St. Louis since Wednesday evening, and only one train has arrived from the south. The Cairo branch is under water and communication shut off.

Three trains are bulletined from the North and expected every hour that have been laid off at points between here and St. Louis for three days. The Black and St. Francis Rivers are out of their banks and the whole country submerged. It is impossible to even estimate the damage. Several hundred passengers are stranded here. Train No. 1, on the Iron Mountain, that left St. Louis this morning, has just arrived and reports a steady rain and a volley through the door, wounding him, and then beat and generally maltreated his wife and child.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 4.—The recent heavy rains have caused the Mow River and Silver Creek to overflow, and the entire bottom of both these streams are now under water. The Louisville and Nashville Railroad raised their track two or three years ago, three feet in the Silver Creek bottom, but the road is now being raised again, and the water is still rising. The loss to farmers in the Silver Creek bottom, with his property, is estimated at $25,000.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 4.—The springlike weather of Christmas has been succeeded by warm, gloomy, rainy weather that is likely to be very expensive to farmers, fruit-growers and railroads. The Missouri River has been badly damaged. Several narrow escapes from wreck on this account are reported. The Missouri River has been badly damaged. Several narrow escapes from wreck on this account are reported.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 4.—The Farmers' Alliance of Livingston County convened in secret session at the City Hall here to-day. The order was reported in a flourishing condition, as the farmers in this county are actually in the summer months put an appearance. Mr. Cannon, the chairman of the Appropriation Committee, has been prominent in inquiring into the effects of the recent bushels of letters and telegrams sent in the Chairman's behalf.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 4.—The chair which has for nearly four years been sacred to the use of Mr. J. F. Fennell, chief clerk of the State Department, and formerly Chief of Affairs at Vienna, will in future be decorated by the presence of a deity. A new chair has been ordered by the department previous to the incoming of President Cleveland.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 4.—The information is not properly official, but those who ought to know all about the matter have been quoted in one or two of to-day's papers as saying that the change from Walker Bluff to the new location is going to take place. "If the Secretary," said, referring to his father, "has come to any conclusion in the matter he has not yet made them public." Mr. Lee is now indisposed and has not been in his office to-day. The probability is that he is in the city, and that a thirty-day leave that on February 1, Mr. Brown will come in.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 4.—The United States steamship Dispatch left the Washington Navy Yard this morning with a number of delegates to the International Convention of the Life Saving Service. They are the guests of Mr. Kimball, General Superintendent of the Life Saving Service.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 4.—A fishing boat containing three Greek fishermen, George Mitchell, his owner and Antonio Nicholas, capsized last night near Point Bonita Light-house, while returning from a cruise and all but Nicholas drowned.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch. ST. LOUIS, Mo., Jan. 4.—A boiler explosion at Samuel Gurney's mills at Peck's Ferry, occurred this evening. The boiler burst and killed and four other men wounded.

Barr Bargains.

Barrs

THERE'S more good, sound, simon-pure bargain news to the square inch in this "ad" than in all the other "ads" put together. Every type means something that you ought to know. The way to find out is to read it.

We propose showing the public what Barr's can do in the way of a stock-taking sale after 40 years' experience.

All the world's invited to Barr's this week.

Barr's Bargain

Can assure the public, from 40 years' experience, that Stock-Taking Bargains do not last very long, and so recommend an early call.

"WILL VEST WIN?"

A Question Missouri Republicans Are Answering in the Negative.

Further Statements of the Danger Confronting the Democracy.

The Spots Where the Opposition Will Make the Hottest Fight to Wrist the Next Legislature from Democratic Control—Senators Who Go On and the Chances for Their Success—Doubtful Districts Confronted—Some Words of Warning Which Will Be of Interest to Every Democrat in the State.

While speculations as to the political composition of the Legislature are to be heard everywhere, the fact that the next November will under ordinary circumstances be of little interest, the fact that the Senators and Representatives then to be elected will be the same as those who were elected in 1888, and the fact that the Republicans and Union Labor parties have made alarming inroads into the Democratic majorities in a number of senatorial and representative districts, making the election of Democrats from those districts extremely doubtful, invests with a good deal of interest, any predictions as to the relative strength of parties in the Thirty-sixth General Assembly, which may be reasonably based on conditions which actually exist.

The startling statement made by the writer in the last SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH, of the decrease of Democratic majorities, and the falling off of Democratic members in the Legislature, has doubtless dispelled the illusion so fondly cherished by many enthusiastic Democrats, that our party was invulnerable and invincible, and that it was a matter of time, sooner or later, that it would be able to regain its lost prestige and its rapidly disappearing majority.

It will not do, however, to simply work to build up the Democratic majority in the State at large, but care must be taken to preserve the Democratic majority in the Legislature, which can only be done by rendering sure Democratic those senatorial and legislative districts which are now doubtful, and it is the purpose of this article to point out the weak places in our lines which are especially open to attack by our friends the enemy. To strengthen these weak points must be the aim of those who shall be charged with the very necessary and important duty of managing and directing the coming campaign, and work preliminary thereto.

There may have a starting point for the calculations which are to follow, upon which to base the probable relative strength of parties in the next Legislature, the present composition of the present Legislature is given as follows:

SENATE.—Democrats, 24; Republicans, 9; Union Labor, 11.

House of Representatives.—Democrats, 78; Republicans, 9; Union Labor, 11.

Democratic majority on first ballot, 30.

Of the present Senate, seven members, or those representing the odd numbered districts hold over, while seventeen Senators in the even numbered districts are to be elected next fall. There is also to be a Senator elected from the Twenty-fifth District to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Senator Allen of St. Louis County. His successor will be a Republican beyond all doubt.

Of the hold-over Senators, five are Democrats for the term of four years, eight are almost certain to elect Democrats, to-wit: The second, sixth, eighth, ninth, tenth, eleventh, twelfth, thirteenth, fourteenth, fifteenth, sixteenth, seventeenth, eighteenth, nineteenth, twentieth, twenty-first, twenty-second, twenty-third, twenty-fourth, twenty-fifth, twenty-sixth, twenty-seventh, twenty-eighth, twenty-ninth, thirtieth, thirty-first, thirty-second, thirty-third, thirty-fourth, thirty-fifth, thirty-sixth, thirty-seventh, thirty-eighth, thirty-ninth, fortieth, forty-first, forty-second, forty-third, forty-fourth, forty-fifth, forty-sixth, forty-seventh, forty-eighth, forty-ninth, fiftieth, fifty-first, fifty-second, fifty-third, fifty-fourth, fifty-fifth, fifty-sixth, fifty-seventh, fifty-eighth, fifty-ninth, sixtieth, sixty-first, sixty-second, sixty-third, sixty-fourth, sixty-fifth, sixty-sixth, sixty-seventh, sixty-eighth, sixty-ninth, seventieth, seventy-first, seventy-second, seventy-third, seventy-fourth, seventy-fifth, seventy-sixth, seventy-seventh, seventy-eighth, seventy-ninth, eightieth, eighty-first, eighty-second, eighty-third, eighty-fourth, eighty-fifth, eighty-sixth, eighty-seventh, eighty-eighth, eighty-ninth, ninetieth, ninety-first, ninety-second, ninety-third, ninety-fourth, ninety-fifth, ninety-sixth, ninety-seventh, ninety-eighth, ninety-ninth, one hundred.

WELL DONE, SAY THEY.

THE REAL ESTATE AGENTS OF ST. LOUIS COMPLIMENT THE POST-DISPATCH.

Solid Business Men of the City Who Appreciate Good Work Done in an Important Section of the News Field—Words of Enthusiastic Commendation for the Complete and Accurate Summary of the Year's Business in Realty.

Real estate agents of St. Louis are thoroughly pleased with their record of last year, as given in the summary published in the Post-Dispatch, and they are also pleased with the manner in which that article was prepared, and the care exercised in obtaining reliable statistics. They are likewise gratified by the attention the Post-Dispatch gave to the real estate business throughout the year, and in a large number of letters received at this office have expressed themselves in very complimentary terms. The Post-Dispatch modestly acknowledges the same. St. Louis last year established an era of prosperity which must continue indefinitely. Her business is increasing in every branch, and the real estate business is no exception. The Post-Dispatch has been a constant source of information to all parts of the country. As a result there has been an unprecedented demand for St. Louis realty. People have come from the east and west and the north and south, seeking investments in this city. St. Louis agents, with judgment, have received them warmly, and have offered them every inducement possible. They have avoided in any way the evils of a boom, or a sudden and marked increase in the value in realty. They have allowed prices to advance legitimately. In this way they have reached a basis not enjoyed by any other city in the country. It is a pleasure to the Post-Dispatch to assist in any work of this kind, and it is very gratifying to feel that its efforts are appreciated and valued by the real estate agents of St. Louis.

Among the letters are the following:

A GREAT SHOWING.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch: We have read with great deal of interest the article in your issue of December 31, 1889, relative to the real estate business of the past year, published in your paper yesterday. It is a very complete and accurate summary of the year's business in realty, and we desire to congratulate you and your staff for the thoroughness and accuracy of the work done. article published in your issue of December 30, relative to a resume of the principal realty transfers during the past year of 1889. The information published was thorough and gave credit to the efficiency of your officers. Trusting that your paper will continue its active and accurate realty news, we remain, Sir, very truly, Yours, F. G. GERHART & CO., Office of F. G. Gerhart & Co., Jan. 3, 1890.

A MAGNIFICENT REVIEW.

The Editor of the Post-Dispatch: Your magnificent review of transactions in St. Louis realty for the year 1889, published in the Post-Dispatch, has been read with interest and with an appreciation of the manner in which the real estate department of your paper has been conducted during the past year. Your representative has, by his efficiency, energy and hard work, secured the confidence of our best real estate firms to a degree which the representatives of no other paper in the city have been able to attain. The Post-Dispatch added to its staff a person with whom we have been in contact for some time, and who has been very successful in his work. We mean to speak for ourselves, individually, but have no doubt the majority of our real estate firms will concur in this sentiment. Respectfully, JOHN BYRNE, JR. & CO., Office of John Byrne, Jr. & Co., Jan. 3, 1890.

ONWARD AND UPWARD.

To the Editor of the Post-Dispatch: Nothing is so convincing as facts; the array of facts given in the article in your paper of the 31st of December, 1889, relative to the real estate business of the past year, is a very complete and accurate summary of the year's business in realty, and we desire to congratulate you and your staff for the thoroughness and accuracy of the work done. It is a very valuable contribution to the real estate business of the city, and we are sure that it will be of great service to all who are interested in the same. NEW ORLEANS, La., Jan. 4.—The Mayor today promulgated the ordinance adopted by the City Council, Thursday night, prohibiting smoking in street cars. The ordinance provides that: "From and after the promulgation of this ordinance that smoking in any street car of this city is hereby prohibited, and shall hereafter be considered as a misdemeanor, and anyone so offending, or any driver of a street car who permits such offense, shall be fined not less than $5 nor more than $25 or imprisoned not less than five days or not more than thirty days, recoverable by the Recorder of the district in which the offense shall be committed, and that one-half of any money thus recovered shall be the property of the party suing such information and testimony to the Recorder as will lead to the conviction of the offender." The president of the various street-car lines met this morning and determined to make no opposition to the enforcement of the law; to meet it at once by taking all the smoking-cars off the track after 11 o'clock to-night.

ADWITS, Tex., Jan. 4.—Relative to the two negroes found assassinated on a highway in Angelina County the day after Christmas Gov.
Rose has offered a reward of $200 each for the arrest and conviction of the parties engaged in the killing.

The Governor has an official report of the affair which gives some tangible and available information of the guilty parties.
He says he believes it was a brutal murder for the gratification of a base and unmanly prejudice against a comparatively helpless portion of the population, and he is determined to use all constitutional means at his disposal to test the potency of the laws to give security to the persons and property of all classes alike, and a failure should be chargeable to the executive. He has furnished the Sheriff of Angelina County and Judge Bywater with a copy of the report, and has directed that thorough investigation until the criminals are discovered and indicted. He assures them in the event of an armed obstruction and interference with the full discharge of their duty, he will send a force to subdue all lawless resistance.

A Yonduo Feast.
By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch.

NEW ORLEANS, La., Jan. 4.—This morning about 1 o'clock the police received information that a number of negroes were behaving in a strange way on Decatur street, between Madison and Monroe, much to the dread of the neighborhood. Sergeant Vogt and Officer Schumacher hastened to the scene and found the door barred and pandemonium reigning inside, it being a Yonduo feast. The door was broken up by the arrest of James Alexander, the high priest, and several of his most demonstrative male and female followers.

BACK DOWN OF THE CHICAGO ELEVATOR MEN ON STORAGE RATES.

Slow Trading in Wheat—Influence of the Government Crop Report on the Market.
The Wheat Market—Looked-Corn Touches Bottom on the East Day of the Year—Previous Dull—Heavy Receipts of Hogs—Operations in Wall Street—The Week on the Floor of the St. Louis Exchange.

By Telegram to the Post-Dispatch.

CHICAGO, Ill., Jan. 4.—The wheat market has been slow in wheat but far from uneventful. One very important thing has been the backdown of the wheat market. They did not withdraw wholly from the position taken, but consented to before the date of raising storage charges, July 1, six months hence. When July 1 arrives they may conclude to postpone the advance again or call it off altogether. The resolution, which like a bushel to the annual tax on warehouse grain stirred up a terrible row and the commission men attacked the elevator crowd with such vigor and in so many ways that they were only too glad to be allowed to let go.

Their weak point was the law prohibiting custody of grain from dealing in grain or call it off altogether. The resolution, which
like a bushel to the annual tax on warehouse
grain stirred up a terrible row and the commission men attacked the elevator crowd with
such vigor and in so many ways that they were only too glad to be allowed to let go.

The battle was a drawn one on the surface, but in reality the elevator men were nearly all on the part of the wheat was the aggressor, and thus grain is relieved from what threatened to be a serious tax.

With corn on a basis of $9 in St. Louis and oats $13 per ton, which is certainly not above the price of production, any increased assessment for the benefit of the warehousemen, which assessment is sure to come of the producer and not the consumer, is to onerous to be borne quietly. The farmer who suffers from such oppression looks in vain for reduction in the interest on his short-lit mortgage.

The Government crop report has proved another source of speculative depression.
Wheat felt the blow first, and has been the first to recover. The Government statistician makes his wheat area nearly eight hundred thousand acres less than at the beginning of his prognostications on the crop, but he raises the yield per acre from 18.5 to 19.5 bushels, which would give at least 50,000,000 bu. more for export than last year, allowing for the hiving away of a respectable quantity to bring reserve up to normal at the end of the crop year.

Wheat, the noted crop expert, gives as his opinion that the area of winter wheat will show a large increase this year over last.
The winter wheat is looking better than when where, and if it gets through the next three years as well as it has the last three the crop of 1890 will be the largest on record. Early in the spring the European market will begin to be oppressed with offerings of Indian, Australian and Argentine wheat already in the market, and unless our exports should be enormous throughout January, February and March, the American market will be in poor shape to receive the outpouring of farmers' reserve.
With this prospect before us, it is not surprising that the market is looking for a decline in summer. The mysteriously missing wheat, which is now puzzling the trade, may be exported to the tropics.

Exports this week from the Atlantic ports include 410,000 bu. of wheat and 181,400 bbls.
of flour, a decrease in both wheat and flour from the preceding week. Price changes this week have not been important.

There was some talk of a decline in wheat reaction, but on the whole the market leaves rather better than it began the week, both in price and in the price. This should be coming in strong and to-day a most significant item crept into the Liverpool cable.
It is now stated that the Liverpool market was the week less than one-half what they were the week before. French farmers have been making a record for the week, and the interior movement in America, that too, is on the decline. Wheat points got only 100 bu. during the week.

Kutzhon and Partridge have been the most potent factors in the wheat market this week. They sell privileges to the extent of millions of bushels every afternoon and keep the market narrow the next day.

The corn market staggered along during the past week as best it could under such a weight of speculation. The market was not much changed from the previous week.
